Project title: Transporting Instruction and Environmental PR

Organization: SJ Vietnam

Partner: Go Green Club

SJ Vietnam (www.sjvietnam.org) is an international youth NGO (Non-Governmental Organization) that promotes values of solidarity, peace, tolerance through young citizenship projects to improve society during and after the voluntarism. It was set up in 2004 by and for national and international young volunteers.

SJ Vietnam is an independent Vietnamese branch of SJ France, a full member of CCVIS (UNESCO) and NVDA, a partner of YAP and Alliance. SJ Vietnam is a non-political and non-religious organization which open to everybody without any distinction of nationality, race, philosophy, financial resources, and education or sex

1. HISTORY

At December 24th 2004, with the help of UNV Vietnam, NVDA and Un ETAI Pour Le Vietnam, SJ Vietnam was set up. The volunteering organization started as an informal cooperation between Miss Do Thi Phuc, Vice-president of Vietnam Youth Volunteer Club and Mr. Pierre De Hanscutter a Belgian UNV working for UNDP Vietnam.

In June 2006, with the support of a sister organization in France, Solidarités Jeunes, Miss Do Thi Phuc was nominated as the official director of SJ Vietnam, Mr. Pierre De Hanscutter became the honorific president and European representative. At the same time, SJ Vietnam is a full member of Network for Voluntary Development in Asia-Pacific (NVDA) and an active member of the Coordination Committee for the International Voluntary Service (CCVIS) at UNESCO.

In 2006, 2007, 2008, SJ Vietnam got prize from the World Bank, Ministry of Education and Ministry of Health for its projects on "Vietnam innovation day" on topics of "Disadvantaged Youth and Children", "Safety traffic" and "HIV/AIDS"

In January 2008, SJ Vietnam was the co-host organization for 7th NVDA General Assembly in Vietnam and welcomed young volunteers of AEYVE from Asia and Europe.

In December 2008, we successfully coordinated Arte-Diem, a jointed project of SJ Vietnam, NVDA and YAP (Youth Action for Peace) to promote peace through art which involved 4000 less-fortuned children and thousands volunteers.

In 2009, we cooperate with United Nations Volunteers (UNV) in Vietnam to celebrate International Volunteers' Day and we are invited to launch our speech and message on behalf of volunteers in Vietnam for promotion of sustainable environmental protection.

Currently, 5000 Vietnamese volunteers have been official members of SJ Vietnam. Around 500 international volunteers took part in our activities each year.

SJ Vietnam is one of the biggest international workcamp organizations in Vietnam.

2. GOALS

By developing International Volunteering, SJ Vietnam aims to:

- ❖ Work towards a society of justice, peace and solidarity
- ❖ Break cultural misunderstanding between people and nations
- ❖ Improve local and global environment, provide informal education, help to reduce poverty and strengthen human rights
- ❖ Encourage young people to participate actively in the society in which they live.

Work Details

- You will join training days organized by our partner Go Green about the methods to PR and raise local people's awareness of the importance and the way to protect environment. The training will help you to know the method, by that, you can make the useful activities popular with people. But all activities will help citizens realize that the environment is more and more polluted and they have to do something to protect it from the rubbish, exhaust fumes and the water source. Call people common hand power contributed to join green transportation, use of media-friendly environment. The propaganda has been mainstreamed through various forms such as exchanges, sharing knowledge, meeting the volunteers, talking directly on the path of the Union Children need to have good practice, not as adults, theoretically sterile. The organization of extracurricular lessons is the best. Like the schools still teach the children to comply with the Law on Road traffic in the actual game. Put the children in these situations so that they can actually be found responsible, their rights to environmental protection, and more fun. Some ways to help children realize probably take the play on the environment, planting trees, cleaning, ...
- You will work with a group of local volunteers to implement PR programs to raise awareness of the local people about the importance and ways to protect environment in travel spots in Hanoi (around 2pm to 4:30 pm). The travel spots include. In this field, there are many activities to participate such as: cycling for environment, or organize many planting trees times.
- Work with a group of Vietnamese volunteers to instruct means of transportation on Hanoi's streets during traffic time (around 5pm – 7pm). This is the rush hours, many vehicle are in circulation and this time, most people come home after a working-hard day, everybody wants to come back home soon. If there are enough volunteer, we will help them to do that. At that time, volunteers will be at crossroad and streets' corners, use the sign or whistle to control the people lines.

Camp activities

- There are the first three days granting for Vietnamese introduction including: Vietnamese lessons in Volunteer House, Hanoi capital tour, Vietnamese cooking and traditional games in Bach Thao Zoo. You will have lively experience and knowledge about Vietnam, its characteristics, its peaceful capital, its tastes and dishes, as well as its games that you have never undergone if you only read through books or travel brochures.
- Evenings will be interesting opportunities for participant(s) from each foreign country to show off your cultural aspects. So when you join the project, you savor not only Vietnamese culture but also cultures of different countries around the world.

Accommodation and Meals

About your accommodation, you will stay in Volunteer Center.

In Volunteer Center, Volunteers will sleep on dormitory beds. There are up to 9 volunteers per room and 18 volunteers share 2 bathrooms. Volunteers sharing the house will be both Vietnamese and International ones. You will need to bring a mosquito net, sleeping bag, small pillow, sheet and an inflatable mattress if you require a little more comfort. There are 2 bathrooms with hot showers, a large communal kitchen with washing machine and ample space on the roof terrace to hang your clothes to dry.

Between the volunteers staying at the Volunteer Center, you will need to share the cooking (a range of ingredients will be provided) and cleaning and ensure that it is hygienic at all times. Bottled mineral water will be supplied at all times at the house. As volunteers you can make this your house - there will not be a co-coordinator staying with you and so you will be responsible for the condition that the house is kept in.

Please note: the Volunteer Center is basic and very simple in appearance, but you'll be made to feel very welcome and be provided with all necessities to make your stay comfortable. Keeping the house clean is the responsibility of all, there will not be a house cleaner to tidy up after you. By following the following simple rules, the house will be a clean and tidy place to live for all:

- Wash and put away dishes after dinner
- Keep toilets and bathrooms clean
- Regularly take out the rubbish
- Remove shoes before entering the house

Travel plan

- Orientation day: on this day, you can have one day to go on Hanoi city tour. Hanoi is not only the capital but also considered to be the cultural center of Vietnam where history has left behind its imprint. Hanoi hosts more cultural sites than any other city in Vietnam so you can have one interesting day going around and enjoy the peaceful beauty of Hanoi in some places such as the Old Quarter, Hoan Kiem lake, the Temple of Literature, One Pillar Pagoda, Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum..
- On the weekends: We will help you to book 1 or 2 day tour in the north of Vietnam for you. You can travel to Halong Bay, which has been named a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is one of breathtaking scenic beauties. Or you can go to Sapa, the fanciful town in fog, famous for its special cultural diversity in a combination of ethnic minority groups' culture, for a glimpse of the famed "Love Market". And many other wonderful destinations in the north. We will arrange private tours with professional guides, high quality service, unique and diversity of activities (team work games and leadership games,...) with a reasonable price. You will have the chance to discover the hidden charm of the Vietnamese culture and people and we ensure that you will have cheerful and unforgettable trips in Vietnam
